SOCIAL WORKER PROGRESS NOTE: 7/17/2014

Pt is a 15 year old AA teen, walk in, who was brought in by her mother this afternoon. Pt was seen in SL ED yesterday afternoon after being sexually assaulted by a male neighbor, reportedly in his 30s, who is considered a friend of the family since they've known him for many years and have done things together. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Pt had rape kit done in the ED. Rapid HIV and pregnancy test were negative per pt's mother.

Incident occurred in pt's home around 2 p.m., came to ED and according to pt, had first dose of PEP around 10 p.m. Pt reports feeling nauseous after taking meds. [REDACTED]

Pt reports she is feeling ok about the incident. No particular concerns reported or noted. [REDACTED] Pt and her mother were informed of the CVTC program as well as CVB compensation for pt's medical/psychological expenses, provided pt's mother with the application and encouraged to apply rather than use her insurance for this situation. She states she will do so and hasn't had a chance to contact CVTC.

We discussed the PEP process and f/u appts. Pt will be away at [REDACTED] from 7/22 - 8/16 and would not be able to return for 2 week f/u. Appt given for 8/25/2014 with SW and provider. Pt will be back in school 8/27/2014 - [REDACTED] Per pt's mother, they will follow up with pt's pediatrician for her 90 day f/u. Pediatrician is Dr. Abigail Trager.

Pt and her mother provided with SW's contact info for use as needed and informed of our availability.

Pt's mother called to request change of pt's 8/25 appt to an earlier date as she plans to send pt back to school in Massachusetts that afternoon. Ms. Smith was informed that pt's provider is on vacation and would not return until 8/25. This SW is also on in pt rotation and would not be back in clinic until 8/25. Pt's mother states that they could come in for the first appt. NP Jung has opening for 8:40 a.m. which she accepted. Pt was already scheduled with SW for 9:30 am - advised that SW would see her daughter earlier if her 9 a.m. doesn't show. Ms. Smith is agreeable to plan.

RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS:

STR DNA typing using the AmpF/STR® Identifiler® and Yfiler™ PCR Amplification Kit was performed on the DNA sample from Lonnie Harrell.

This DNA profile was compared to the results in the following case:

FB Number	Complaint Number	Victim's Name	Case Report ID
FB14-04050	2014-028-03324	C [REDACTED] S [REDACTED]	CRT-0914-0479

The Y STR DNA profile of Lonnie Harrell matches the DNA profile of Male Donor A to the samples listed below; therefore, he or one of his paternal male relatives could be the source of this DNA:

- dried secretion swab 1.4.1 from "bilateral labia"
- dried secretion swab 1.4.3 from "bilateral labia"
- vulvar swab
- oral swab, swab remains fraction

The DNA profile of Male Donor A is expected to be found in approximately:

16 locus result (dried secretion swab 1.4.1 from "bilateral labia", dried secretion swab 1.4.3 from "bilateral labia", vulvar swab)

- 1 in 685 African American males
- 1 in 1330 Asian males
- 1 in 562 Caucasian males
- 1 in 400 Hispanic males

FBS15-00044

Lonnie Harrell

The DNA profile of Male Donor A is expected to be found in approximately:

10 locus result (oral swab, swab remains fraction)

→ 1 in 321 African American males

1 in 439 Asian males

1 in 125 Caucasian males

1 in 120 Hispanic males

Lonnie Harrell is not the source of the DNA in all other samples where comparisons could be made.

The DNA profile above is suitable for entry into the OCME local DNA databank.

APPENDIX

General

This report has an associated Forensic Biology case file.

Background to DNA Testing

DNA (Deoxyribo-Nucleic Acid), the inherited genetic material found in cells, contains markers which can differ from person to person. DNA testing can determine these genetic markers and compare biological samples from different individuals.

Alternative forms of DNA markers are called alleles. Alleles are found at specific areas, or locations, of the DNA called loci (singular, locus).

STR (short tandem repeat) loci contain alleles with a variable number of short repeating segments. Each STR allele can be described using a number which represents its number of repeats. A DNA profile is the series of numbers describing the DNA alleles found at an individual's STR DNA loci.

DNA Testing

DNA testing involves several steps, including DNA extraction, DNA quantitation, PCR/DNA amplification, and analysis of the resulting DNA alleles.

DNA extraction recovers DNA from biological samples such as blood, bone, hair, saliva, semen, and skin cells.

Differential extraction is designed to physically separate the DNA in epithelial cells from the DNA in sperm cells, in samples which potentially contain a mixture of sperm and other cell types. As a result, separate "epithelial cell," "sperm cell," and "swab (or substrate) remains" DNA fractions are generated. Incomplete separation can occur and fractions may contain both sperm DNA and epithelial cell DNA.

DNA quantitation measures the amount of DNA extracted from samples by using a technique called quantitative real time polymerase chain reaction (qRT-PCR). If sufficient DNA is detected, DNA amplification and analysis can be attempted.

The PCR (polymerase chain reaction) technique produces large amounts of DNA from small starting amounts of DNA by repeated cycles of copying the DNA loci (DNA amplification); after amplification the alleles present in the sample are identified.

STR DNA typing for STRs uses the Applied Biosystems AmpF/STR® Identifiler® PCR Amplification Kit with 28 amplification cycles (Identifiler® 28). Each STR locus tested in the Identifiler® Kit contains between 8 and 32 identifiable alleles.

Y-chromosome STRs (Y-STR) are male-specific STRs, not present in females, that are inherited from father to son, and should be identical for all male relatives of the paternal line. For example, brothers who share the same father will have the same Y-STR type. Y-STR DNA typing uses the Applied Biosystems AmpF/STR Yfiler™ PCR Amplification.

This is an additional report. For previous results, evidence received, and disposition, see Case Report ID CRT-0315-0285.

RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS

STR DNA typing using the AmpF/STR® Identifiler® PCR Amplification Kit was performed on the DNA sample from Lonnie Harrell. A DNA profile was determined.

This DNA profile was compared to the results in the following case:

The DNA profile of Lonnie Harrell matches the DNA profile of Male Donor B to the samples listed below.

The DNA profile of Male Donor B is expected to be found in approximately 1 in greater than 6.80 trillion people:

- swab of "top of the straw" (15 locus profile)
- swab of "rim/mouth area of cup" (15 locus profile)

General

This report has an associated Forensic Biology case file.

Background to DNA Testing

DNA (Deoxyribo-Nucleic Acid), the inherited genetic material found in cells, contains markers which can differ from person to person. DNA testing can determine these genetic markers and compare biological samples from different individuals.

Alternative forms of DNA markers are called alleles. Alleles are found at specific areas, or locations, of the DNA called loci (singular, locus).

STR (short tandem repeat) loci contain alleles with a variable number of short repeating segments. Each STR allele can be described using a number which represents its number of repeats. A DNA profile is the series of numbers describing the DNA alleles found at an individual's STR DNA loci.

DNA Testing

DNA testing involves several steps, including DNA extraction, DNA quantitation, PCR/DNA amplification, and analysis of the resulting DNA alleles.

DNA extraction recovers DNA from biological samples such as blood, bone, hair, saliva, semen, and skin cells.

Differential extraction is designed to physically separate the DNA in epithelial cells from the DNA in sperm cells, in samples which potentially contain a mixture of sperm and other cell types. As a result, separate "epithelial cell," "sperm cell," and "swab (or substrate) remains" DNA fractions are generated. Incomplete separation can occur and fractions may contain both sperm DNA and epithelial cell DNA.

DNA quantitation measures the amount of human and male DNA extracted from samples by using a technique called quantitative real time polymerase chain reaction (qRT-PCR). If sufficient human and/or male DNA is detected, DNA amplification and analysis can be attempted.

The PCR (polymerase chain reaction) technique produces large amounts of DNA from small starting amounts of DNA by repeated cycles of copying the DNA loci (DNA amplification); after amplification the alleles present in the sample are identified.

STR DNA typing for STRs uses the Applied Biosystems AmpF/STR® Identifier® PCR Amplification Kit with 28 amplification cycles (Identifier® 28). Each STR locus tested in the Identifier® Kit contains between 8 and 32 identifiable alleles.

Y-chromosome STRs (Y-STR) are male-specific STRs, not present in females, that are inherited from father to son, and should be identical for all male relatives of the paternal line. For example, brothers who share the same father will have the same Y-STR type. Y-STR DNA typing uses the Applied Biosystems AmpF/STR Yfiler™ PCR Amplification.

Conclusions for DNA Typing

Mixture: A DNA profile that has more than one donor.

Major: Alleles that are present in a higher proportion in a DNA mixture profile.

Minor: Alleles that are present in a lower proportion in a DNA mixture profile.

Match: The alleles detected in a questioned/evidence sample that are the same as the alleles detected in another sample.

Is included as a possible contributor: For the locations where comparisons could be made, all or most of the DNA alleles seen in an individual's DNA profile were also seen in the mixture. The allele(s) that were absent could be explained by any of several factors. Therefore, this person cannot be ruled out as a possible contributor to the mixture.

Excluded as a contributor to the mixture: For the locations where comparisons could be made, one or more of the DNA alleles seen in an individual's DNA profile were not seen in the mixture and this absence cannot be explained. Therefore, this person can be ruled out as a contributor.

No conclusions can be drawn: The results do not support a positive association or an exclusion. Therefore, it cannot be determined whether a person can be included as a possible contributor to the mixture.

Not suitable for comparison: The DNA results on the evidence are either too incomplete or too complex to be the basis for conclusions regarding the source of the DNA.

Partial Match: An association between two single-source (clean or fully deconvoluted) profiles, showing similarities but short of an exact match, that suggests that the source of a profile is potentially a relative of the source of the other, partially matching, profile. Partial matches are inadvertent, and may be found at the local, state, or national levels (through comparison at the bench, LINKAGE, or CODIS searches).

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK: PART 82

In the Matter

an Order to T-Mobile Directing the Disclosure of Call Detail and Cell Site Information for 646-593-3203.

AFFIRMATION IN SUPPORT OF AN ORDER TO T-Mobile

JUNG PARK, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the courts of this state, hereby affirms under penalty of perjury that:

1. I am an Assistant District Attorney, of counsel to CYRUS R. VANCE, JR.,
District Attorney of New York County.
2. I make this affirmation in support of an Order directing T-Mobile to disclose call detail, including cell site information, for all calls made over a cellular telephone assigned telephone number 646-593-3203 (hereinafter, "TARGET CELL PHONE"), service to which is provided by T-Mobile, for the period 7/15/14 to 9/10/14.
3. "Cell sites" are cellular transmitting and receiving stations that work much like radio antennas. Every call made over a cellular telephone is routed through a cell site, and this information is stored by the cellular company's computers. Cell site information will enable us to determine the general vicinity from where a particular cellular telephone is transmitting. I have been informed by representatives of T-Mobile that they require a Court Order to release cell site information.
4. I make this affirmation on information and belief, based upon my conversations with civilian witnesses and law enforcement officers assigned to the Manhattan Special Victims Squad of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), who are familiar with this investigation.

5. The following information is provided by a civilian witness whose identity and address are known to NYPD and the New York County District Attorney's Office ("informant"): in the early afternoon of July 16, 2014, defendant Lonnie Harrell, who was fifty-one years old, was at the informant's apartment located at 92 St. Nicholas Avenue in New York County. Lonnie Harrell lived on the same floor as the informant. While inside the informant's apartment, Harrell choked the informant, covered her mouth with his hand and dragged her to another room.

6. Once inside the room, Harrell demanded that the informant spread her legs and that if she did not do as she was told, he would go "berserk." Harrell took off the informant's shorts and underwear, placed them on a table and inserted his finger in her vagina. The informant began to cry and stated that she was in pain. Harrell performed oral sex on her, and the informant attempted to push him away. Harrell forced his mouth on her mouth. Harrell pulled down his pants and rubbed his penis on her vagina. Harrell forced the informant to her knees, grabbed her head, unzipped his pants and put his penis in her mouth. Harrell ejaculated and used the informant's underwear to clean up.

7. Harrell then took photographs of the informant without her underwear and threatened that if she told anyone about what happened, he would show the photographs. Harrell asked the informant for her cell phone number, and after she gave him her number, he called the number to make sure that she gave the correct number. When Harrell called informant, the phone number that appeared on the informant's cell phone was 646-593-3203 ("the target cell phone"), which is serviced by T-Mobile. Harrell took the informant's underwear and left the apartment. Once Harrell left the apartment, informant notified the police and detectives from the Special Victims Squad began an investigation. Detective Susan Barbato was assigned to investigate the case. By Indictment Number 4258/2014, a New York County Grand Jury charged defendant Harrell with Criminal Sexual Act in the First Degree, Attempted Rape in the First Degree and other related crimes.

8. I obtained subscriber's information for 646-593-3203 ("the target cell phone") pursuant to a Grand Jury subpoena and the number was registered to an unidentified person with an email address of lonniesarrell54@yahoo.com and a date of birth as December 27, 1962. According to the report prepared by the Criminal Justice Agency ("CJA") and Lonnie Harrell's criminal record ("rap sheet"), defendant Harrell's date of birth is December 27, 1962.

9. Cell site information will enable us to determine the general vicinity from where target cell phone is transmitting, so that we may determine defendant Harrell's whereabouts at about the time of the crime until his arrest on September 10, 2014.

10. Based on the foregoing, it is submitted that the People have set forth specific and articulable facts showing that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the records, or information sought are relevant and material to an ongoing criminal investigation.

11. In order to preserve the secrecy of this investigation, I respectfully request that this application and resulting orders be sealed.

12. It is further requested that the resulting order permit T-Mobile to waive personal production of the aforementioned records before the Supreme Court of the State and County of New York by faxing them to the Office of the District Attorney of New York County or to the NYPD, or sending them via electronic mail to parkju@dany.nyc.gov, so that the information may be used immediately by members of the New York City Police Department.
